

Senior Consultant - Strategic Planning

- Work on exciting and diverse projects
- Deliver innovative reports at the forefront of urban planning
- Be part of a growing, fun and collaborative team

About HillPDA

HillPDA is an independent firm that has provided expert advice to government, private corporations and institutions for over 25 years. We are well recognised for our expertise in planning, property economics, development advisory and valuations. We combine our skills to provide high quality, evidence based advice for the benefit our clients, communities and cities. Owing to HillPDA's continued growth and success, an opportunity exists for a Senior Consultant to join our planning team in the Sydney office.

About the role

As a senior strategic planning consultant you would:

- Manage medium and large projects to deliver high quality outputs that are tailored to meet our client's requirements
- Apply your expert knowledge of planning to contribute to the firm's recognition as thought leaders and innovators
- Coordinate the preparation of tenders and fee proposals
- Participate in meetings and workshops both internally and with a wide range of clients and stakeholders
- Collaborate with multi-disciplinary teams to develop effective policy positions
- Allocate resources efficiently to ensure projects are delivered on time and within agreed budget
- Expand your network of clients and industry professionals.

To be successful in this role you will need:

- Professional qualification(s) in urban/town planning or an associated degree(s)
- 4+ years' experience in the planning industry (NSW experience preferable)
- Strong verbal and written communication skills
- Experience in managing projects and working within budgets and timeframes
- Strong analytical and problem-solving skills.

You will enjoy connecting with clients and industry professionals. Your communication skills will be excellent.

Why HillPDA?

The HillPDA team is passionate about our work. We offer the potential to specialise in areas of interest or to explore a broad range of medium to large strategic projects. Our work typically includes housing strategies, affordable housing strategies, employment land strategies, planning policy, social impact assessment, community engagement and commercial centre revitalisation schemes. Recent projects include collaboration precincts, planning for creative industries, leveraging employment anchors, inclusive housing policies, major infrastructure projects and reviews to planning frameworks. Our work will influence development outcomes for decades to come.

We value our team members and have a friendly, healthy workplace where everyone contributes ideas and expertise.

We offer:

- A competitive salary package
- A central CBD location
- Flexible working hours
- Ongoing training and professional development
- Regular social activities.

Interested candidates should submit their CV with cover letter to admin@HillPDA.com. If you would like to discuss the position in confidence, please contact Elizabeth Griffin on (02) 9252 8777.

For over 25 years, HillPDA consulting have been bridging the gap in knowledge between planning, development and economic opportunities. www.hillpda.com